

A Wedding
Uzbekistan

Throughout A Wedding in Uzbekistan we follow the course of a traditional wedding from the preparation of the bride and groom to the wedding ceremony itself. We see how the wedding is celebrated in different parts of the country.

On the afternoon of their wedding day, the newlyweds visit the mosque where they will be married, which usually takes place in the middle of the town square. This is followed by the wedding feast, which begins at sunset. The wedding feast is a time of great fun and merriment, with dancing at the beginning, followed by singing and dancing until the early hours of the morning.
